

Name _____

Clownfish: A Small Fish with a Big Role in the Ocean

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do clownfish help sea anemones?
 - a) By feeding them fish
 - b) By moving them to new coral reefs
 - c) By protecting them from sharks
 - d) By cleaning them of algae and leftover food

2. What do clownfish eat that helps control pests in the ocean?
 - a) Large fish
 - b) Plankton and tiny crustaceans
 - c) Seaweed and coral
 - d) Jellyfish and turtles

3. How do clownfish contribute to the food chain?
 - a) They only eat plants.
 - b) They are both predators and prey.
 - c) They are too small to be part of the food chain.
 - d) They eat coral.

4. What effect do clownfish have on coral reefs?
 - a) They damage the reef by eating coral.
 - b) They make the reef less colorful.
 - c) They help increase biodiversity.
 - d) They chase away other marine life.

5. Why are clownfish important for the ecosystem?
 - a) They help clean sea anemones, control pests, and support the food web.
 - b) They live alone and don't affect other creatures.
 - c) They scare away predators from coral reefs.
 - d) They only serve as food for sharks and groupers.

