Clash of the Clubs

Short Answer Key

1. The first challenge, "The Great Trivia Showdown," was a quiz show-style contest where Olivia from the Brainiacs Club competed against Jake from the Adventure Seekers Club. Jake won the challenge.
2. The second challenge, "The Scavenger Hunt," required the clubs to race through the school and its surroundings, solving clues and riddles to find hidden objects. The Brainiacs Club won this challenge.
3. The theme of the third challenge, "The Creative Showcase," was to showcase the culture of a chosen country. The Brainiacs chose Japan, and the Adventure Seekers chose Mexico. Each club had to demonstrate their chosen country's traditions, art, music, and more.
4. The message found in the treasure chest during the grand finale read, "In unity, we find greatness." This message made the two clubs realize the value of working together and led them to merge into one club, the Middleton Marvels.
5. By the end of the story, the rivalry between the Brainiacs and the Adventure Seekers transformed into a partnership. They merged into one club, the Middleton Marvels, and decided to combine their strengths to embark on new adventures together.
