

Name _____

Navigating the College Application Journey

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How might participating in extracurricular activities benefit your college application?
2. Explain the significance of standardized test scores in the college application process.
3. Why is it essential to craft authentic and well-written college essays?
4. Describe the role of self-reflection in helping you choose the right college.

