

Name _____

Navigating the College Application Journey

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Possible answer: Participation in extracurricular activities can demonstrate your interests, leadership skills, and dedication outside of academics.
2. Possible answer: Standardized test scores serve as one of the many factors colleges consider when evaluating an applicant's academic abilities.
3. Possible answer: Well-written essays provide insight into your personality, experiences, and values, helping colleges understand who you are beyond your grades and test scores.
4. Possible answer: Self-reflection helps you identify your interests and goals, allowing you to find colleges that align with your aspirations and values.

