Colonial Clashes

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would have supported the British because they had more land and power. However, the French had better relationships with Native Americans.
2. If the French had won, North America might have had more French-speaking colonies, and the United States might not have existed as we know it.
3. The biggest effect was that it led to the British gaining control but also led to tension that caused the American Revolution.
4. Native American tribes lost land, were forced to choose sides, and faced more challenges from European settlers.
