

Name _____

Colorful Emotions

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Red Crayon feel exhausted?
 - A) It is never used.
 - B) It only colors fire trucks.
 - C) It is used for many exciting things like hearts, apples, and holiday decorations.
 - D) Duncan lost it.

2. What emotion does Blue Crayon symbolize?
 - A) Excitement and action
 - B) Calmness and peace
 - C) Anger and frustration
 - D) Mystery and darkness

3. What is the main reason Yellow and Orange Crayon are arguing?
 - A) They both think they are the true color of the sun.
 - B) They don't like being in the same box.
 - C) They want to be used for something new.
 - D) Duncan forgot to use them.

4. What does Black Crayon want to show in Duncan's drawings?
 - A) It can outline better than other crayons.
 - B) It wants to be mixed with other colors.
 - C) It should never be used.
 - D) It can be used to add mystery and power.

5. What lesson does Duncan learn by the end of the passage?
 - A) Every color represents something meaningful and should be appreciated.
 - B) He should stop using crayons and switch to paint.
 - C) Some colors are more important than others.
 - D) He should always use colors the way they are traditionally used.

