Colorful Emotions

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary, but students should describe a unique crayon color and explain what emotions or ideas it represents.
2. Answers should include how colors make people feel and give examples, like how blue can be calming and red can be energetic.
3. Answers should discuss how colors help set moods in stories, movies, or artwork.
4. Answers should connect the idea of valuing all colors to treating people fairly and appreciating different perspectives.
