

Name _____

Colorful Feelings

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why was Red Crayon unhappy?
 - A) It was never used.
 - B) It was used too much and never got a break.
 - C) It was too short to color anymore.
 - D) It was always mixed with other colors.

2. What was the main argument between Yellow and Orange Crayon?
 - A) They both wanted to be Duncan's favorite.
 - B) They both thought they were the color of the sun.
 - C) They both wanted to be used more.
 - D) They didn't want to be in the same box.

3. How did Duncan show empathy to his crayons?
 - A) He bought new crayons and threw the old ones away.
 - B) He stopped using the overworked crayons.
 - C) He ignored the letters and continued coloring as usual.
 - D) He colored in a new way to make all the crayons feel appreciated.

4. What can we learn from Pink Crayon's letter?
 - A) It's unfair to use certain crayons for only one thing.
 - B) Some colors are more important than others.
 - C) Pink is only for princess dresses.
 - D) Pink should be used less.

5. What is the main lesson of the passage?
 - A) Crayons can talk if you listen carefully.
 - B) It's important to be creative in coloring.
 - C) Understanding others' feelings helps us treat them better.
 - D) Duncan should stop coloring so much.

