

Name _____

Colorful Feelings

Short Answer Key

1. Blue Crayon was used so much that it became very short and hard to hold.
2. Duncan created a new drawing where he used all the crayons in unique and unexpected ways.
3. Beige Crayon felt ignored and thought it was only used for boring things like wheat and sand.
4. The passage teaches that when we listen to others, we understand their feelings and can treat them better.
5. Duncan showed fairness by giving each crayon a chance to shine in his new and colorful drawing.

