Colorful Feelings

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary, but should reflect a crayon's unique perspective (e.g., "I am Silver Crayon, and I feel left out because I only get used for holiday cards!").
2. Answers should describe the crayons feeling happier, more included, or more appreciated.
3. Answers should discuss the importance of understanding how others feel and being kind.
4. Answers will vary, but students might suggest creative ways to use colors differently (e.g., "I would make the grass purple and the sky orange just to be different!").
