Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary, but students should describe a crayon's perspective and a suggested change Duncan could make.
2. Answers should discuss how people sometimes feel left out, overworked, or unappreciated, just like the crayons.
3. Answers should explain how using different colors in unexpected ways made Duncan's drawing more creative.
4. Answers should describe a personal experience where they felt overworked or ignored and how they handled it.
