

Name _____

Colorful Solution

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Duncan decide to create a new kind of picture?
 - A) He was bored with his old drawings.
 - B) He wanted to make his crayons feel valued and appreciated.
 - C) He needed to finish an assignment for school.
 - D) He didn't have any other colors to use.

2. How did Duncan make sure Beige Crayon felt included?
 - A) He colored a bear using Beige.
 - B) He let Beige draw the outlines.
 - C) He used Beige to color a large sandcastle.
 - D) He didn't use Beige at all.

3. What did Duncan do to solve the argument between Yellow and Orange?
 - A) He used both colors together to make the sun.
 - B) He stopped drawing suns altogether.
 - C) He chose Yellow and ignored Orange.
 - D) He used Orange but not Yellow.

4. What made Duncan's final drawing special?
 - A) It looked just like his old drawings.
 - B) It was messy and had no colors.
 - C) It used all the crayons in unique and unexpected ways.
 - D) It only used Duncan's favorite colors.

5. What is the main lesson Duncan learned from his crayons?
 - A) Some colors are better than others.
 - B) Arguing is the best way to solve problems.
 - C) Drawing is only fun when using traditional colors.
 - D) Listening and including everyone leads to more creative results.

