1. It's important to never give up because challenges can make us stronger. Tina kept going even when comedy was tough for women, and she became a star.
2. I would create a funny show about a kid who tries different jobs every week, from astronaut to chef. It would be fun and educational!
3. Comedy helps people see problems in a fun way, making it easier to talk about important issues.
4. I would ask Tina what the funniest moment in her career was because I'd love to hear a story from behind the scenes.
