

Name _____

Coming to America

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did many immigrants come to the United States for economic reasons?
  - a) They wanted to visit Ellis Island.
  - b) They were looking for jobs and better opportunities.
  - c) They wanted to fight in wars.
  - d) They wanted to become government leaders.

2. What was one political reason people left their home countries?
  - a) They wanted to work in factories.
  - b) Their families were already in America.
  - c) They were escaping strict government rules or unfair treatment.
  - d) They wanted to learn a new language.

3. What was Ellis Island?
  - a) A place where immigrants were checked before entering America.
  - b) A town where immigrants worked in factories.
  - c) A country where people moved for freedom.
  - d) A railroad station where people got jobs.

4. What happened to immigrants at Ellis Island?
  - a) They were given free money.
  - b) They had to pass medical and legal inspections.
  - c) They were automatically sent back home.
  - d) They voted in elections.

5. Why do many Americans today have family members who came through Ellis Island?
  - a) Immigrants became government officials.
  - b) Everyone in the world moved to America.
  - c) Ellis Island gave people free land.
  - d) Millions of immigrants passed through Ellis Island to start a new life in America.

