

Name _____

How Does a Rabbit Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a "binky" in rabbits?
 - A) A sound they make when they are scared
 - B) A posture they use when threatened
 - C) A way they rub their chin to leave a scent
 - D) A playful hop and twist in the air

2. Why do rabbits thump their back feet on the ground?
 - A) To show they are happy
 - B) To mark their territory
 - C) To warn others of danger
 - D) To ask for food

3. What do rabbits use their scent glands for?
 - A) To make sounds
 - B) To play with other rabbits
 - C) To clean their fur
 - D) To mark their territory

4. How does a rabbit show it feels safe and happy?
 - A) By flopping onto its side
 - B) By growling
 - C) By crouching low to the ground
 - D) By hiding

5. What sound might a rabbit make if it feels threatened?
 - A) A loud bark
 - B) A growl or grunt
 - C) A chirping noise
 - D) A purring sound

