

Name _____

How Does a Komodo Dragon Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do Komodo dragons mainly communicate?
 - a) By making loud sounds
 - b) By roaring
 - c) Through singing
 - d) Using body language, scent, and gestures

2. What is the purpose of a Komodo dragon's forked tongue?
 - a) To scare predators
 - b) To help find food and sense direction
 - c) To drink water
 - d) To dig holes

3. Why do Komodo dragons wrestle during mating season?
 - a) To play
 - b) To show dominance
 - c) To practice fighting
 - d) To scare prey

4. What does a Komodo dragon do to mark its territory?
 - a) Rub scent on the ground
 - b) Hiss loudly
 - c) Hide under rocks
 - d) Clap its claws

5. When might Komodo dragons tolerate being near each other?
 - a) When they are resting
 - b) During a storm
 - c) When sharing a large meal
 - d) While laying eggs

