

Name _____

How Leopards Communicate

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do leopards use sounds to communicate?
 - a. By whispering
 - b. By making no sounds
 - c. By chirping like birds
 - d. By roaring, growling, and purring

2. What does a leopard do to mark its territory?
 - a. Digs holes
 - b. Leaves food behind
 - c. Sprays urine and rubs its body on trees
 - d. Sings loudly

3. What does it mean when a leopard flattens its ears and lowers its body?
 - a. It feels threatened
 - b. It is happy
 - c. It wants to play
 - d. It is looking for food

4. Why do leopards purr?
 - a. To scare predators
 - b. To show contentment
 - c. To attract prey
 - d. To mark territory

5. How do cubs learn to communicate with other leopards?
 - a. By playing and using gestures
 - b. By watching humans
 - c. By staying silent
 - d. By singing songs

