

Name _____

How Do Llamas Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What sound do llamas often make to express feelings?
 - a. Barking
 - b. Whistling
 - c. Roaring
 - d. Humming

2. Why might a llama spit?
 - a. To show happiness
 - b. To warn others or show dominance
 - c. To invite play
 - d. To attract a mate

3. What body language might a llama show when it feels threatened?
 - a. Flatten its ears
 - b. Jump up and down
 - c. Wag its tail
 - d. Whistle loudly

4. What is the purpose of a llama's scent glands?
 - a. To help llamas find food
 - b. To keep warm
 - c. To mark territory and avoid conflicts
 - d. To attract predators

5. How do llamas greet each other?
 - a. By humming loudly
 - b. By touching noses
 - c. By stomping their feet
 - d. By flapping their ears

