

Name _____

The Language of Feathers: How Birds Communicate

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do birds primarily communicate with each other?
 - a) Through vocalizations, body movements, and visual signals
 - b) Through text messages
 - c) Through telepathy
 - d) Through Morse code

2. What is one purpose of bird vocalizations?
 - a) To order food
 - b) To send emails
 - c) To play games
 - d) To alert others of potential predators

3. What are courtship displays used for?
 - a) To scare away predators
 - b) To attract mates
 - c) To mark territory boundaries
 - d) To build nests

4. How do birds use body language to communicate?
 - a) By typing on keyboards
 - b) By singing songs
 - c) By performing dances
 - d) By displaying aggressive behaviors

5. What are chemical signals used for in bird communication?
 - a) To send secret messages
 - b) To order pizza
 - c) To convey information about reproductive status and social hierarchy
 - d) To write letters

