

Name _____

Compact Beginnings

Short Answer Key

1. They were outside of England's rule and needed laws to keep order.
2. A written agreement that the Pilgrims would create fair laws and work together.
3. It helped everyone agree to follow rules and work for the good of the colony.
4. Other colonies saw that they could also make their own governments.
5. Both allow people to choose leaders and make laws together.

