

Name _____

Mixtures, Compounds, and Clean Water

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a mixture?
 - a) A single element
 - b) Two or more things combined without change
 - c) A new substance
 - d) Something with no water

2. What is an example of a compound?
 - a) Water
 - b) Leaves
 - c) Sand
 - d) Filter

3. Why is chlorine used in water cleaning?
 - a) To add flavor
 - b) To make bubbles
 - c) To kill germs
 - d) To color the water

4. What does desalination remove from water?
 - a) Germs
 - b) Sand
 - c) Sugar
 - d) Salt

5. What makes a compound harder to remove than a mixture?
 - a) It's frozen
 - b) It's tiny
 - c) It's chemically bonded
 - d) It's invisible

