

Name _____

Mixture or Compound? The Sneaky Science of Substances

Short Answer

1. What are compounds made of?
2. Give one example of a mixture that looks like a single substance.
3. How are the parts of a mixture different from those of a compound?
4. What do scientists do to test if something is a compound?
5. Why might a mixture act differently from a compound during a test?

