

Name _____

Why Water Matters

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think water is called “essential” to life?
2. Can you name another compound that is important to living things? Why?
3. What might happen to the world if there were no water?
4. How does learning about water help us understand science better?