

Name _____

The Internet Revolution: Changing How We Connect and Learn

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the World Wide Web, and when did it emerge?
 - a) A global spiderweb of physical cables
 - b) A network primarily used for military purposes
 - c) A network of interconnected computers
 - d) A system for instant messaging

2. How did email revolutionize communication on the internet?
 - a) It allowed people to send physical letters.
 - b) It enabled instant messaging across the globe.
 - c) It provided a platform for social networking.
 - d) It introduced video calls.

3. What role do search engines like Google play in internet usage?
 - a) They are digital libraries.
 - b) They offer online courses.
 - c) They help users find information through searches.
 - d) They are social media platforms.

4. How did social media platforms impact communication on the internet?
 - a) They allowed instant messaging.
 - b) They introduced video calls.
 - c) They revolutionized online learning.
 - d) They transformed the way we interact and share.

5. What is one of the challenges associated with the internet's impact on communication and information access?
 - a) Increased privacy and data security
 - b) Responsible and respectful online behavior
 - c) Information overload and source evaluation
 - d) Decreased global connectivity

