

Name _____

The Boston Tea Party: Destruction, Disguises, and Consequences

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How much tea was estimated to have been destroyed during the Boston Tea Party?

- a) 100 chests
- b) 200 chests
- c) 340 chests
- d) 500 chests

2. What was the primary method used to destroy the tea during the Boston Tea Party?

- a) Burning the tea
- b) Throwing the tea overboard
- c) Smashing the tea chests
- d) Consuming the tea

3. How did the colonial protesters disguise themselves during the Boston Tea Party?

- a) As British soldiers
- b) As Spanish explorers
- c) As Mohawk Indians
- d) As French merchants

4. Were there any casualties or deaths associated with the Boston Tea Party?

- a) Yes, there were many casualties.
- b) No, there were no casualties or deaths.
- c) Yes, there were a few casualties.
- d) No, there were some casualties but no deaths.

5. What were the consequences of the Boston Tea Party in terms of British government actions?

- a) The British government praised the protesters.
- b) The British government passed punitive measures against Boston.
- c) The British government lowered taxes on tea.
- d) The British government granted the American colonies representation in Parliament.

