

Name _____

Can You Make Something “Disappear” in a Chemical Reaction?

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe a time you saw a chemical change. What did you think was happening?
2. Why do you think it's important to understand that matter isn't destroyed?
3. If you could make a new experiment to show this law, what would you do?
4. How does this idea change the way we see everyday things, like cooking or cleaning?

