

Name _____

The Water Cycle: Changing Forms of Matter Without Disappearing

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What happens during evaporation?
 - A. Water becomes ice
 - B. Water turns into gas
 - C. Water forms clouds
 - D. Water disappears

2. Which step causes clouds to form?
 - A. Precipitation
 - B. Collection
 - C. Evaporation
 - D. Condensation

3. What is precipitation?
 - A. Water turning into vapor
 - B. Water falling as rain or snow
 - C. Water going into the ground
 - D. Water floating in the air

4. What is the main idea of the water cycle?
 - A. Water moves in only one direction
 - B. Water disappears over time
 - C. Water changes form but doesn't disappear
 - D. Water becomes new matter

5. Why is the water cycle an example of conservation of matter?
 - A. Water changes forms but is never lost
 - B. Water always stays in clouds
 - C. Water disappears in the air
 - D. Water always freezes

