

Name _____

The Water Cycle: Changing Forms of Matter Without Disappearing

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe what you think happens to a raindrop after it hits the ground.
2. Why is it important to understand that matter is never lost in the water cycle?
3. How would the water cycle be different if water could disappear?
4. What would happen to plants and animals if the water cycle stopped?

