

Name _____

Composting: The Never-Ending Cycle of Matter

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Explain how composting is an example of the cycle of matter.
2. Why is it better to compost food scraps instead of throwing them away?
3. Describe what might happen if nobody composted and all food waste went to landfills.
4. How could your school or community start composting?