

Name _____

Contemporary Dance: A Fusion of Expression

Multiple Choice Questions

1. When did contemporary dance begin to take shape as a distinct dance style?
  - a) 18th century
  - b) Early 20th century
  - c) Renaissance period
  - d) Late 19th century

2. Who are some of the pioneering figures in contemporary dance?
  - a) Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and Ludwig van Beethoven
  - b) Isadora Duncan, Martha Graham, and Merce Cunningham
  - c) William Shakespeare and Anton Chekhov
  - d) Mikhail Baryshnikov and Rudolf Nureyev

3. What is a key characteristic of contemporary dance?
  - a) Strict adherence to classical ballet techniques
  - b) Limited range of movements and emotions
  - c) Fluidity and freedom of movement
  - d) Exclusive use of classical music

4. How does contemporary dance incorporate elements from other dance styles?
  - a) By adhering strictly to ballet techniques
  - b) By avoiding all traditional dance forms
  - c) By ignoring the influence of jazz dance
  - d) By fusing techniques from various dance styles

5. What sets contemporary dance apart from traditional ballet in terms of music selection?
  - a) It exclusively uses classical music.
  - b) It only incorporates modern soundscapes.
  - c) It may perform to a variety of musical genres.
  - d) It relies on silence for its performances.

