

Name _____

Control vs. Freedom

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Some may say safety is more important, while others may argue that freedom makes life meaningful.
2. Some governments limit learning to control people and prevent rebellion. Answers will vary on whether this is fair.
3. Answers will vary. Some may say they would leave to find freedom, while others may argue staying is safer.
4. Examples may include banned books, censorship in the media, or government-controlled news.

