

Name _____

George Washington's Vital Role at the Constitutional Convention of 1787

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What role did George Washington play in the Constitutional Convention of 1787?
 - A) He was a delegate from Virginia.
 - B) He served as the Secretary of the Convention.
 - C) He was elected as the President of the Convention.
 - D) He did not participate in the Convention.

2. Why was George Washington's presence important at the Constitutional Convention?
 - A) He was a famous scientist.
 - B) He was a respected leader from the American Revolution.
 - C) He was known for his skills in writing.
 - D) He was a skilled diplomat.

3. What was one of the major challenges the Constitutional Convention faced?
 - A) Deciding on the national anthem.
 - B) Finding a balance between the interests of large and small states.
 - C) Determining the country's flag design.
 - D) Creating the Bill of Rights.

4. How did George Washington contribute to resolving disputes at the Convention?
 - A) By taking sides in the debates.
 - B) By reminding the delegates to compromise and work together.
 - C) By refusing to participate in discussions.
 - D) By resigning from his role as president.

5. What role did George Washington play in promoting the ratification of the U.S. Constitution?
 - A) He actively campaigned against its ratification.
 - B) He remained neutral and did not take a stance.
 - C) He used his influence to encourage its approval.
 - D) He did not get involved in the ratification process.

