

Correlative Conjunctions

DIRECTIONS: Read each scenario below. Is it a function of the correlative conjunction? Circle YES or NO.

1. To connect similar words or phrases together in a sentence. YES NO

2. To link items in a sentence that are being discussed independently of one another. YES NO

3. To connect two independent clauses that are of equal importance. YES NO

4. To show how words and phrases in a sentence are related to each other. YES NO

5. To introduce a subordinate clause. YES NO

6. To emphasize that items being discussed independently of each other happen concurrently. YES NO

7. To emphasize that items being discussed independently of each other happen in close succession. YES NO