

Name _____

Crayon Solutions

Short Answer Key

1. The crayons wrote letters because they felt overworked, ignored, or unfairly treated in Duncan's drawings.
2. Duncan used the crayons in unexpected ways, like making a pink dinosaur, a black castle, and a sun with both Orange and Yellow.
3. Beige Crayon felt unimportant because it was only used for wheat and sand. Duncan fixed this by making a big beach scene with Beige.
4. Duncan showed leadership by listening to the crayons' complaints and finding a creative solution that made everyone happy.
5. Duncan learned that being a good leader means understanding different perspectives and making fair choices.
