

Name _____

The Curious Kid's Crazy Experiments

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What inspired Max to start the Floating Feather Project?
 - A) A colorful rainbow in the sky.
 - B) A group of birds flying gracefully.
 - C) A book about helium balloons.
 - D) A science experiment he saw on TV.

2. What happened when Max released the feather-balloon hybrids into the air?
 - A) They floated gently to the ground.
 - B) They turned into feather-powered rockets.
 - C) They disappeared into thin air.
 - D) They got stuck in a tree.

3. What did Max create with the Gigantic Bubble Brew?
 - A) A giant bubble wand.
 - B) A bubble so small it was invisible.
 - C) The world's largest bubble.
 - D) A bubble that couldn't float.

4. What happened during the Vegetable Volcano experiment?
 - A) Max grew a giant cabbage.
 - B) The cabbage turned into a real volcano.
 - C) The cabbage spewed cabbage-scented foam.
 - D) Nothing happened; it was a failed experiment.

5. What valuable lessons did Max learn from his wild and wacky experiments?
 - A) The importance of following safety rules.
 - B) That experiments should always go as planned.
 - C) Lessons about creativity, problem-solving, and the joy of discovery.
 - D) That scientific experiments are boring.

