

Name _____

Crocodile Communication: Nature's Silent Language

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What sound do baby crocodiles make to call for help?
 - a) Growls
 - b) Hissing
 - c) Roars
 - d) Chirping sounds

2. Why do male crocodiles bellow during mating season?
 - a) To scare other animals
 - b) To attract females and warn rival males
 - c) To cool down
 - d) To call their young

3. What does a crocodile do when it opens its mouth wide?
 - a) It is a warning or a way to cool down
 - b) It is trying to eat
 - c) It is calling for food
 - d) It is playing with other crocodiles

4. How can crocodiles communicate in ways humans cannot hear?
 - a) By clicking their teeth
 - b) By using low-frequency vibrations
 - c) By singing
 - d) By stomping their feet

5. How do mother crocodiles protect their babies after they hatch?
 - a) They hide them in the sand
 - b) They leave them alone
 - c) They carry them in their mouths and warn them with low growls
 - d) They make loud noises to scare predators

