

Name _____

How Does Globalization Affect Cultural Diversity Around the World?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is cultural homogenization?
 - a) The preservation of local cultures
 - b) The borrowing and mixing of elements from different cultures
 - c) The spread of dominant cultures worldwide, leading to the loss of smaller ones
 - d) The exchange of cultural traditions

2. How does globalization impact language and communication?
 - a) It promotes the preservation of local languages
 - b) It results in the decline of local languages
 - c) It doesn't affect languages in any way
 - d) It only affects English as a global language

3. What is cultural appropriation?
 - a) A respectful exchange of cultural elements between cultures
 - b) Borrowing or imitating elements of one culture by another, often without understanding or respect
 - c) Celebrating and preserving traditional practices
 - d) Promoting cross-cultural understanding

4. What is one advantage of globalization on cultural diversity?
 - a) Preservation of small cultures
 - b) Homogenization of cultures
 - c) Increased cultural stereotypes
 - d) Enrichment of the global cultural landscape

5. How can people avoid perpetuating cultural stereotypes in a globalized world?
 - a) By learning about and understanding different cultures
 - b) By creating new stereotypes to replace old ones
 - c) By avoiding interaction with people from other cultures
 - d) By not participating in global events or exchanges

