

Name _____

Michigan's Cultural Treasures: Exploring the State's Cultural Institutions

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which cultural institution in Michigan is renowned for its collection of over 65,000 artworks, including works by Vincent van Gogh and Diego Rivera?
  - a) The Motown Museum
  - b) The Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation
  - c) The Detroit Historical Museum
  - d) The Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA)

2. Which museum pays tribute to American innovation and features artifacts like the Rosa Parks Bus and the Wright Brothers' plane?
  - a) The Motown Museum
  - b) The Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation
  - c) The Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History
  - d) The University of Michigan Museum of Art (UMMA)

3. Where can visitors explore the history and contributions of African Americans through exhibits, art collections, and interactive displays?
  - a) The Detroit Historical Museum
  - b) The Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History
  - c) Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park
  - d) The Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA)

4. In which city can you find the Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park, a cultural institution that combines art and nature?
  - a) Detroit
  - b) Dearborn
  - c) Grand Rapids
  - d) Ann Arbor

5. Which museum in Ann Arbor houses a diverse collection of artworks from various cultures and time periods, making it an integral part of the university's cultural life?
  - a) The Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History
  - b) The Motown Museum
  - c) The University of Michigan Museum of Art (UMMA)
  - d) The Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA)

