

Name _____

Cultural Traditions

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the central conflict in the story "Cultural Traditions"?
 - a) The Patel family argues about whether to celebrate a special occasion.
 - b) The younger generation questions the relevance of traditional customs and rituals.
 - c) Priya wants to move away from her family's cultural heritage.
 - d) Mr. Patel refuses to adapt to modern living.

2. Why does Priya express skepticism about the traditional ceremony?
 - a) She is bored and wants to do something else.
 - b) She thinks the ceremony is too short.
 - c) She believes the traditions are outdated and meaningless to her generation.
 - d) She doesn't like her family.

3. How do Priya's grandparents feel when she questions the traditions?
 - a) They are amused and join in the skepticism.
 - b) They feel hurt and disrespected.
 - c) They are indifferent and don't care about the traditions.
 - d) They scold Priya for her opinions.

4. What changes Priya and Raj's perspective on the cultural traditions?
 - a) They decide to abandon the traditions completely.
 - b) Priya's grandparents share a heartfelt story about their experiences.
 - c) They have a heated argument with their parents.
 - d) They receive a gift.

5. How does the Patel family resolve the conflict regarding their cultural traditions?
 - a) They decide to never celebrate traditions again.
 - b) Priya and Raj stop talking to their parents.
 - c) They continue to honor their traditions while adapting them to suit their modern lives.
 - d) They move away and abandon their family.

