

Name _____

Cultures Collide

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was one reason settlers and Native Americans fought over land?

- A) They had the same beliefs about sharing land.
- B) Settlers thought land could be owned.
- C) Native Americans didn't want to trade goods.
- D) Settlers didn't build homes on the land.

2. How did settlers' actions affect Native Americans' survival?

- A) They helped Native Americans grow more crops.
- B) They built villages together with Native Americans.
- C) They taught Native Americans how to farm.
- D) They hunted animals and used resources Native Americans needed.

3. What was one cause of King Philip's War?

- A) Disputes over land and resources
- B) A lack of trade between settlers and tribes
- C) New settlers teaching farming techniques
- D) A peaceful agreement over land ownership

4. What was a result of King Philip's War?

- A) Native Americans gained control of their land.
- B) Settlers and Native Americans stopped trading.
- C) Settlers gained more control of the land.
- D) No villages were affected.

5. What can we learn from the early conflicts between settlers and Native Americans?

- A) The importance of respecting different cultures
- B) The need to avoid trading goods
- C) How to claim more land peacefully
- D) Why conflicts don't affect history

