

Name _____

Marie Curie: Radiance of Discovery

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where did Marie Curie move to study at the Sorbonne?
 - a) Poland
 - b) London
 - c) Paris
 - d) Germany

2. What did Marie Curie and Pierre Curie discover in their laboratory?
 - a) Two new planets
 - b) Two new elements, polonium and radium
 - c) A cure for radiation exposure
 - d) A new type of microscope

3. Why did Marie Curie name one of the discovered elements "polonium"?
 - a) In honor of her husband Pierre
 - b) In honor of her homeland
 - c) To commemorate their Nobel Prize
 - d) Because it sounded scientific

4. What is the term coined by Marie Curie to describe the phenomenon they were unraveling?
 - a) Radiance
 - b) Radiationology
 - c) Radioactivity
 - d) Radiosynthesis

5. What did Marie Curie contribute to during World War I?
 - a) Development of mobile radiography units
 - b) Inventing a new type of radio
 - c) Writing a book on chemistry
 - d) Discovering a new element

