

Name _____

Empowering Through Education: Breaking the Cycle of Poverty

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the essential roles of education in breaking the cycle of poverty?

- a) Providing immediate financial assistance
- b) Offering emotional support
- c) Equipping individuals with knowledge and skills
- d) Ensuring job placement without further training

2. How can education help break generational poverty?

- a) By guaranteeing high-paying jobs to all family members
- b) By providing opportunities for better employment and economic prospects
- c) By excluding the older generation from the benefits of education
- d) By solely focusing on theoretical knowledge

3. What is the primary purpose of skills training in poverty alleviation?

- a) To create a generation of entrepreneurs
- b) To increase employability and earning potential
- c) To promote dependence on government assistance
- d) To eliminate the need for further education

4. How can education foster entrepreneurship and innovation?

- a) By discouraging creativity and risk-taking
- b) By providing access to information and resources
- c) By limiting individuals' access to opportunities
- d) By focusing solely on theoretical knowledge

5. What is one of the benefits of education beyond job opportunities?

- a) Increasing income inequality
- b) Limiting access to information
- c) Improving health and financial literacy
- d) Reducing employability

