

Name _____

Dali's Dreamlike Landscape

Short Answer Key

1. The melted clocks in Dali's painting are described as draped on tree limbs and having a soft, melted appearance.
2. The self-portrait of Dali in the painting is a surreal surprise and represents the artist's presence in this strange world he created.
3. The poem describes the sky as a dreamy cerulean blue, symbolizing the dreamlike and surreal nature of the landscape.
4. The painting evokes feelings of curiosity and strangeness and raises questions about the nature of time and reality.
5. Salvador Dali challenges conventional ideas of reality and time by depicting melting clocks and creating a surreal landscape where time seems to lose its significance.

