

Name _____

The Dance of Time

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes time as moving forward like a river and people as grains of sand in an eternal hourglass.
2. Teenagers feel caught between the nostalgia of childhood and the anticipation of adulthood.
3. We collect memories like treasures, and they are important because they are the footprints we leave behind on the shores of time.
4. The poem suggests that time is a canvas, and individuals are the artists of their destiny, painting their own story on it with each step they take.
5. The central message is that time is a precious and unstoppable force, and individuals have the power to create their own story within it.

