

Name _____

Dangerous Belief

Short Answer Key

1. The Puritans believed that questioning their leaders meant going against God.
2. Fear made people accuse others to save themselves, which made the trials grow worse.
3. John Proctor had to choose between lying to save his life or telling the truth and being punished.
4. The play shows that when people don't question authority, innocent people can suffer.
5. Blindly following leaders can lead to unfair treatment, fear, and loss of justice.

