

Name _____

Dangerous Belief

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would want to speak out, but I might be too scared of being accused.
2. People trust leaders because they fear punishment or don't want to stand out.
3. A modern example is when people face backlash for telling the truth about important issues.
4. People can think for themselves by asking questions, learning from different sources, and not believing everything they hear.

