

Name _____

Dark Warnings

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is foreshadowing?
 - a) A way to describe a character's appearance.
 - b) A happy moment in the story.
 - c) A hint about what will happen later in the story.
 - d) A part of the setting.

2. How does the fire in the story serve as foreshadowing?
 - a) It symbolizes destruction and hints at future violence.
 - b) It helps the narrator become a better person.
 - c) It shows that the narrator has bad luck.
 - d) It has no meaning in the story.

3. What makes the second black cat a strong example of foreshadowing?
 - a) It disappears before the police arrive.
 - b) It helps the narrator escape his punishment.
 - c) It leads the narrator to get a new pet.
 - d) It behaves exactly like Pluto and reminds the narrator of his guilt.

4. Why is the white mark on the second cat's chest important?
 - a) It makes the narrator feel safe.
 - b) The narrator believes it changes into the shape of a noose, predicting his punishment.
 - c) It helps the narrator remember Pluto.
 - d) The police find it interesting but ignore it.

5. How does Poe make the ending of the story feel expected?
 - a) By adding clues throughout the story that suggest the narrator will be caught.
 - b) By making the narrator escape without any problems.
 - c) By changing the story to have a happy ending.
 - d) By removing all mentions of the second cat.

