

Name _____

The Trial and Death of Socrates (Euthyphro, Apology, Crito, Phaedo) by Plato

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who wrote "The Trial and Death of Socrates"?
 - a) Socrates
 - b) Aristotle
 - c) Plato
 - d) Euclid

2. What are the four dialogues included in this collection?
 - a) Euthyphro, Apology, Crito, and Phaedo
 - b) The Republic, The Symposium, The Phaedrus, and The Laws
 - c) The Iliad, The Odyssey, The Aeneid, and The Epic of Gilgamesh
 - d) The Analects, The Tao Te Ching, The Confessions, and The Divine Comedy

3. In which dialogue does Socrates defend himself in court?
 - a) Euthyphro
 - b) Crito
 - c) Phaedo
 - d) Apology

4. What is the main topic of the "Euthyphro" dialogue?
 - a) The immortality of the soul
 - b) The nature of justice and holiness
 - c) Socrates' defense in court
 - d) The social contract

5. What is the central theme of "Phaedo"?
 - a) Socrates' trial and execution
 - b) The nature of death and the immortality of the soul
 - c) Socrates' conversations with Euthyphro
 - d) The role of philosophy in Athenian society

