

Name _____

Exploring the Verdant Plains: Unveiling the Grassland Biome

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are the dominant trees in temperate deciduous forests?
 - a) Palm trees
 - b) Oak, maple, beech, and birch
 - c) Pine trees
 - d) Redwoods

2. How many distinct seasons do temperate deciduous forests experience?
 - a) Four
 - b) Three
 - c) Two
 - d) Five

3. What type of climate characterizes temperate deciduous forests?
 - a) Hot and arid
 - b) Cold and snowy
 - c) Warm and humid
 - d) Tropical and wet

4. What role do understory plants play in temperate deciduous forests?
 - a) Providing shade for larger trees
 - b) Deterring herbivores
 - c) Creating a vibrant display of colors
 - d) Thriving in the shaded forest floor

5. How have human activities impacted temperate deciduous forests?
 - a) By increasing biodiversity
 - b) By improving soil fertility
 - c) By causing habitat loss and fragmentation
 - d) By promoting forest conservation

