

Name _____

Data: The Decision-Making Wizard

Short Answer Key

1. Data can help a farmer decide when to plant crops by analyzing historical weather data to reduce the risk of frost damage.
2. Online retailers use past purchase history and browsing behavior data to recommend products that a customer might like, creating a personalized shopping experience.
3. Data can be used to analyze patient data and medical research findings to identify potential cures or treatments for diseases.
4. Teachers use student performance data to track progress and adjust teaching strategies to ensure continuous improvement.

